AT THE STAR.

The Taylor company will present "The Light House by the Sea" on Monday evening, December 3. The production is a splandid one, having been a big success when played in New York city and across the United States from coast to coast for several seasons. The play is a scenic creation throughout. The Taylor company will bring their scenery with them, but as some of it will be too large to erect on the Star Theater stage, new settings are being built and painted by the company's carpenter and scenic artist. Every effort is being made to give a correct scenic production of "The Light House by the Sea" and the play is worthy of the effort. It is a beautiful love story, supported by uproarous comedy, and thrilling situations. The players are all well known and popular with the theater goers of the west. Mr. Blanchard will play the blind lighthouse keeper and his conception of the part has won the appreciation and applause of not only his audience, but the competent, critics everywhere in the west. The cast is a good one and every member of the company will be seen to good advantage in the opening play. It is the intention of both the manager of the theater and the manager of man of Seaside, was in the city yesthe company to play nothing but the terday. best of plays with the best of players. Monday night you will experience a pleasant surprise if you witness "The Astoria. Light House by the Sea."

"THE MIDNIGHT EXPRESS."

The "Eagles" flocked to the Astoria Theater in great numbers last night and ruffled their feathers, whetted their beaks and shricked with delight at the amusing diversions of "The Notorious Mrs. Gay," as depicted by the Mack Swain Company. The perform- i ance commenced with the singing of ing in Astoria. the "Ode of Welcome" and the "Opening Ode" of the order by the Rose City quartette, and at the conclusion of the play the quartette filed upon the stage and sang the "Closing Ode." What He Needed to Know. As the ocean liner was entering the narrow channel the president of the steamship company, a nervous, fussy individual, came up to the pilot, a whiskered old salt who had spent most of his many years on the sea.

"I suppose you know all the dangerous places in this channel," suggested the resident.

The pilot, looking straight out into the night, gruffly replied, "Nope." "You don't!" said the magnate, "Then why on earth are you in charge of that wheel? What do you know?" "I know where the bad places ain't." replied the old pilot.-Woman's Home Companion.

ITCHING PAINFUL SORES ON HANDS

Suffered for a Long Time Without Relief-Had Three Doctors and Derived No Benefit-One Doctor Was Afraid to Touch Them-Soreness Disappeared and Hands Now Smooth After Application of

CUTICURA SOAP AND CUTICURA OINTMENT

"For a long time I suffered with sores on the hands which were itching, painful, and disagreeable. I had three doctors and derived no benefit from any of them. One doctor said he was afraid to touch my hands, so you must know how bad they were; another said I never could be cured; and the third said the sores were caused by the dipping of my hands in water in the dye-house where I work. I saw in the papers about the wonderful cures of the Cuticura Remedies and procured some of the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. In three days after the application of the Cuticura Ointment my hands began to peel and were better. The soreness disappeared, and they are now smooth and clean, and I am still working in the dye-house.

"I strongly recommend Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment to any one with sore hands, and I hope that this letter will be the means of helping other sufferers. Very truly yours, Mrs. A. E. Maurer, 2340 State St., Chicago, Ill., July 1, 1905."
